FIU is an urban, multi-campus, public research university serving its students and the diverse population of South Florida. We are committed to high-quality teaching, state-of-the-art research and creative activity, and collaborative engagement with our local and global communities.
• FIU was founded in 1965 and opened for classes in 1972 with 5,667 students, the largest opening day enrollment in U.S. collegiate history.

• U.S. News & World Report placed the College of Business at No. 15 among the top business schools for the International MBA in its 2016 edition of the Best Graduate Schools.

• President Barack Obama participated in an immigration town hall meeting on FIU’s Modesto A. Maidique Campus on Wednesday, Feb. 25, 2015.

• Nearly half of all teachers employed in the Miami-Dade County Public School System, the nation’s 4th largest public school system, have an FIU degree.
